Englishmen Showing Fine Form.

SAN DIEGO, March 18 .- For the first time since the opening of the international polo tournament at Coronado, the weather today was unpropitious. There was a chilly breeze that marred the enjoyment of the spectators and had more or less effect in preventing the players doing their best work. Three games were played.

The morning match between Burlingame second team and Bryn Mawr re-sulted in a victory for the latter, 5 to 2. The Burlingame second team showed slight improvement over its previous playing, while the Pennsylvanians were playing, while the Pennsylvanians were as strong as ever.

In the first game of the afternoon Ranelagh was pitted against Riverside and the latter suffered its third defeat of the tournament.
